1. Conduct by players, managers, and coaches must be above reproach, both on and off the field. Any misbehavior or misconduct can cause the disqualification of a player, manager, or coach and could also lead to the disqualification of their team.
2. Types of behavior that could lead to the disqualification include, but are not limited to:
  - Use of profane or indecent language.
  - Arguing and aggressive behavior towards teammates, coaches, members of other teams, umpires, tournament officials, and volunteers, on or off the field of play.
  - Throwing and (or) abuse of any equipment or property.
  - Any illegal acts.
  - Refusing to leave the field of play or the complex immediately when asked to do so by the umpire in charge of the game or by the Tournament Director.
3. Air horns, boom boxes, and all artificial noisemakers are prohibited in the ball park.
4. Managers are required to read the rules and regulations for tournament play, as well as the Manager's Tournament Information Package (MTIP) for this tournament.
5. During the game, the manager is responsible for ensuring that their coaches and players stay under control, even if another player or anyone else says something that they find to be offensive. Managers, coaches, and players should not respond to provocation—that could lead to the disqualification of their team.

I certify that I have read and understand this document and that the information herein has been provided to and discussed with the team's coaches and players, and with the players' parents.
